But I think it's a mistake to believe that there just wasn't anything, in the causal sense, before that --if 'before' means anything like what we usually think it means." Pernak sat forward and moistened his lips. 'Til give you a loose analogy. Imagine a flame. Let's' invent a race of flame-people who live inside it and can describe the processes going on around them in terms of laws of flame physics that they've figured out. Okay?" lay frowned but nodded. "Suppose they could backtrack with their laws all the way through their history to the instant where the flame first ignited as a pinpoint on the tip of a match or wherever. To them that would be the origin of their universe, wouldn't it." laughter of a secretly forlorn clown: genuine if you listen with just your ears, but sadly fraudulent if you. Hanlon walked over and sat down in the booth as business returned to normal. "They hear you were here, Steve. I heard them talking in the back of Rockefeller's.
